Sublimely ridiculous or ridiculously sublime - the final concert of the season for the Hudson Valley Chorale will please a variety of tastes, featuring a divergent mix of musical styles. The performance will be held at 8 p.m. on Saturday, June 6, 2009, at Dominican Convent, Route 340, Sparkill, NY, and is aptly titled:

“Music - From the Sublime To the Ridiculous”

For the opera-lover, the chorale will perform well-known selections from operas by Bizet, Verdi, Wagner and others; and for those who prefer a “lighter” fare, the music segues into a more humorous vein with some surprises by Rossini, Stephen Chatman, and P.D.Q. Bach.

Dr. Jason Thoms, Director of Choral Activities at Concordia College in Bronxville, NY, and an accomplished baritone, will again be at the podium.

Mr. Steven Vosatka, Artistic Director and Principal Conductor of the Piermont Chamber Opera, and organist at St. Peter’s R.C. Church, Haverstraw, NY, will provide accompaniment on piano.

Tickets are $12 in advance, or $15 at the door.

For tickets/information, please contact Mike Scully at (845) 729-1783.
